

CAFÉ REASON BUTOH DANCE THEATRE presents

Shadow Dances

Butoh showcase,
with original new work
from Café Reason's Body Ecologies: Beyond the Human project and featuring guest artist
Julie Becton Gillum in Dusk, the Darkening.

...the hidden darkness of the body...

Friday 13 June
Unicorn Theatre
Abingdon OX14 3JB
7.30 pm

Tickets £15/£12.50 (booking fee applies)

Shadow Dances

Hugh Pryor

A BUTOH double bill in the unique setting of the historic Abingdon Abbey Buildings.

ON A RARE VISIT to the UK, Julie Becton Gillum, artistic director of the 14-year-running Asheville Butoh Festival, will perform her striking solo work Dusk, a response to the darkening world: images of border walls symbolise obstacles, struggle, and breakthrough.

CAFÉ REASON will present work from its current project, Body Ecologies: Beyond the Human. Discover and celebrate our unique bodies and our complex and timeless relationship with the Earth. With live music from Malcolm Atkins.

CAFÉ REASON is a long-established local performance company specialising in butoh – the radical dance form that originated in post-war Japan and set out to express 'the hidden darkness of the body' and the shadowy, marginal, and conflicted aspects of human experience.

"Quite magical; powerful and moving; I was captivated."
Audience member (Tipping Point, 2020)

Tickets: £15 (12.50 conc.) www.ticketsource.co.uk/cafe-reason-butoh-dance
Tel. 0333 666 3366

Venue: Unicorn Theatre,
Checker Walk, Abingdon,
OX1 4JF

More information

www.cafereason.com/main/body_ecologies.htm
www.facebook.com/cafereason marketing@cafereason.com
www.abingdonabbeybuildings.co.uk/events/

Main photo: Briana Jones • Design: Ayala Kingsley